Hi! Sorry, I meant to finish this up. I still have a few question marks in the table for places where I'd like to double-check, since I assume no one else will be QA'ing at this level again, and that makes me nervous. But we can go ahead and put it in and I can do that while it's in review?

Yes, the human tables for sure in the appendix, they are already there, I just added to those.

I can send you the word files for these after my 2 pm mtg...

Hi Catherine, are you pretty much finished with the tables? I'd like to add them to the supp info so we can send it to Vince for clearance.

Thanks for all your work on this!

Hey! I'm still working on these but I wanted to send you what I've got. I'd like to talk about where we should insert the adduct detection table. In the human studies table, the ones that aren't hero-linked are the ones I've added. 😊
